Connoisseur Travel, Ltd., Announces the Addition of Lynchburg Based Travelbugs, Inc.

WASHINGTON, DC – July 15, 2016: In an ever-changing travel industry landscape, Connoisseur Travel announced its acquisition of Lynchburg-based Travelbugs, Inc. With this addition, Connoisseur Travel has brought new expertise into its vacation department as well as broadened its geographic reach.

"Melissa Taylor, Travelbugs' founder and CEO, has grown a highly respected, successful and like-minded travel agency in the Lynchburg area that, combined with our team of vacation experts, will enhance the choices we will be able to offer our clients," said Catherine Hagle, President, Connoisseur Travel. "All of our clients will now have the benefit of the specialized expertise of Connoisseur's vacation specialists."

Melissa's team comes with experience specializing in escorted group travel, destination weddings and honeymoons, all-inclusive vacations and world-wide golf excursions. They come to Connoisseur Travel as an 'Authorized Disney Vacation Planner', a 'Platinum Sandals Agency', and hold certifications in Aruba, Jamaica, St. Lucia, Mexico and many other Caribbean Islands. Melissa has been very successful in putting together vacation travel programs specifically suited for Chamber of Commerce members, the banking industry and the credit union community. "Our goal has always been to provide the very best local customer service. We believe our job in the travel industry is to provide a travel experience for our clients that upgrades their expectations. We share the same philosophies and service level as Connoisseur Travel, making for a great marriage of experts to handle the vacation travel needs of all our clients," said Melissa Taylor, Founder and President of Travelbugs.
